

DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE DIRECTIVE NO. 1/17¹

HUMAN RESOURCES COMMITTEE (HRC)

(Effective 18 May 1976)

Pursuant to Section 102 of the National Security Act of 1947, Executive Order 11905 and National Security Council Intelligence Directives, a Human Resources Committee (HRC) is established as a standing Director of Central Intelligence Committee with the following mission and functions.

1. Mission

The mission of the committee, under the general guidance of the Director of Central Intelligence, is to advise and assist the Director in the discharge of his responsibilities for the efficient allocation and effective use of Community resources for the collection of positive foreign intelligence information through human resources, and to advise the National Foreign Intelligence Board.

2. Functions

The functions of the committee are:

a. To examine problems and consider possible improvements in collection by human resources and to provide recommendations to the Director of Central Intelligence related thereto.

b. To encourage collaboration and coordination among human resource collection agencies with emphasis on the allocation of effort and responsibility for the satisfaction of intelligence requirements susceptible to human resource collection and on the evaluation of end products.

1. This directive supersedes DCID No. 1/17 effective 5 June 1974.

c. To assist in the review and evaluate the effectiveness of human resource collection and reporting activities and to make recommendations to the Director of Central Intelligence for improvements or modifications thereof.

d. To recommend or sponsor research, experimentation and training in techniques, procedures and equipment to increase the effectiveness and responsiveness of human resource collection.

3. Community responsibilities

Upon request of the committee chairman, Intelligence Community organizations shall furnish to the committee, within established security safeguards, particular information or materials needed by the committee and pertinent to its functions.

4. Composition, organization, and rules of procedure

The composition, organization, and rules of procedure of the Human Resources Committee are those stated in DCID 1/3. The committee will not review the operational details or internal management of the work of the individual departments and agencies.
